Find new ways to eat churros at this reopened shop

Weekend-long

Nolita

A fresh churro is a thing of great beauty: simultaneously crunchy and chewy, piping hot, and glittering with cinnamon and sugar. And luckily, now that La Churreria has reopened, you don't have to hop a plane to find a legit version. Founded by chef Jesus Lolo Manso (who also owns Socarrat Paella Bar), here, aside from the classic golden, fried churro sticks, the shop also has churro bites to dip into sauces like strawberry, matcha, and dulce de leche; savory items like churro egg sandwiches; and for the young (at heart) chocolate-dipped churro lollipops. Just make sure you practice rolling your Rs before ordering.

Cost: Churros from $4
