La Churreria, also located near Houston, is celebrating San Gennaro's return with a savory Churro Dog stuffed with Basque-style, pleasantly spicy Chistorra sausage and loaded with onions. And there are now two first-rate slice joints on Mulberry Street: Manero's down near Canal, and Noam Grossman's Upside Pizza on the corner of Spring Street, the latter of which is running San Gennaro's first-ever Pizza Eating Competition next Friday, September 24th, at 1 p.m.
